

Present

2021 HODGETTS AWARD WINNER

Making a Difference: The application of a gender equity lens in public administration

2021 J.E. Hodgetts Award winner,
Prof. Maya Eichler, for the Best
English Article in the IPAC journal,
Canadian Public Administration

PROF. MAYA EICHLER

Holds the Canada Research Chair in Social Innovation and Community Engagement and is an Associate Professor of Political and Canadian Studies and Women's Studies at Mount Saint Vincent University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. She is also the Director of the Centre for Social Innovation and Community Engagement in Military Affairs at Mount Saint Vincent University.

JOIN US ON NOVEMBER
16TH AT 11:00 a.m. EST

For a presentation by Prof. Maya Eichler. Professor Eichler will discuss her article "Administrative tribunals and equity: Military sexual assault survivors at the Veterans Review and Appeal Board".

SAYWARD MONTAGUE
Discussant

Director of Advocacy with the National Association of Federal Retirees

EVERT LINDQUIST
Moderator

Professor of Public Administration at the University of Victoria and
Editor, Canadian Public Administration

Wednesday, November 16, 2022, 11:00 a.m. EST

[CLICK HERE FOR
FREE REGISTRATION](#)