

National Student Paper Competition

The National Student Paper Competition (NSPC), an annual competition, is organized by the Canada School of Public Service.

The goal of the NSPC is to enhance public service excellence by creating opportunities for Canadian graduate students to:

- apply academic expertise to inform public policies
- network within the federal public service and academia
- win a 4-month internship with the Canadian federal public service

Apply today!
Application deadline:
December 15, 2023

